A double digit percentage increase (10.56%) for the second month in a row is good news at last. International passengers actually increased by nearly 14%, which is better than last month. Leeds/Bradford had the 3rd best increase in the country. Top was Doncaster at 22% (Easyjet affect) and 2nd was Belfast City at 12%.

Internationally, we had 24 routes with Increases ranging from 255% (Malta), Bergerac (210%), Corfu (102%), Monastir (76%) down to Rome at 0.48%. We had 22 with a decrease, with the worst being Heraklion (-46%), Bodrum (-27%), Toulouse (-27%), Olbia (-26%), Two routes didn't operate this year (Copenhagen and Almeria) and there were 9 new routes.

On the Domestic routes only Plymouth showed an increase (+7%) and the rest showed a decrease with the worst being Newquay (-64%), Aberdeen (-64%), Isle of Man (-31%). The top routes in passenger numbers are 1st Belfast International and then Southampton, Belfast City and Gatwick.

Just one flight diverted away from LBIA and that went to Gatwick...
