

Privacy Statement

The Society protects the personal information you have provided as part of your membership. The Society does not disclose your information to any third parties.

The only personal information the Society holds about members is that which you provided on the membership application form you completed and signed, when first joining the Society and annually at your membership renewal. The information is held on a password protected computer system. Members' details are available to Committee Members to facilitate the running of the Society.

When completing and signing the membership application form you agree as follows: "I agree that my personal details provided above will only be used in connection with Air Yorkshire Aviation Society matters". These matters are: delivery of your magazine and keeping you informed of Society events and any subsequent changes to events/meetings.

If you do not renew your membership then your personal details may be retained for twelve months to facilitate a reminder to you and a possible subsequent renewal by you.

Where the Society has organised an event involving a third party e.g. an airfield visit, then the third party may require the Society to disclose the names and addresses, for health, safety and security reasons, of those who have elected to attend. This will only be done with your agreement. When you sign-up for the event, you will be informed of the third party's requirement and your agreement will be sought.
